Mr. Angus Thuermer
Assistant to the Director
CIA
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Thuermer:

We have been in touch with Congressman Pike's office and he has accepted our invitation to appear with Mr. Colby at the National Town Meeting of Dec. 10th. The program is titled: "Investigating the CIA." Lawrence Stern, correspondent for the Washington Post, is being invited to moderate.

The program will be broadcast nationwide over National Public Radio and the Associated Press radio service over some 450 stations. Air time is promptly at 10:30 a.m.. We would appreciate it if you could have Mr. Colby in the Eisenhower Theatre Green Room at 10:15 to go over last minute details with the moderator. The format requires a two minute opening statement by Rep. Otis Pike and Mr. Colby, after which questions are taken directly from members of the audience from floor mikes in the aisles of the Eisenhower Theatre.

The theatre seats 1100 people. Our audiences are made up of a fair cross-section of the public -- tourists, area residents, representatives from special interest groups, and students from local universities.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for any information you may need concerning the Dec. 10th meeting.

Sincerely,

Frederick G. Dutton
